1. Purpose

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of PetroQuest Energy, Inc. (the “Company”): (a) will identify and recommend qualified candidates to the Board for nomination as members of the Board and its committees; and (b) will develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance principles applicable to the Company. The Committee is subject to the provisions of the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company (the “Certificate of Incorporation”), which provides each of the Class B Holder and the Class C Holder (each as defined in the Certificate of Incorporation) the right to elect two directors, which directors’ terms shall expire according to the terms of the Certificate of Incorporation.

2. Composition

The Committee will consist of at least two directors as selected by the Board. At such time as the Company shall be listed on a national securities exchange and annually thereafter, the members of the Committee shall have been affirmatively determined by the Board to satisfy the definition of “independent” under the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) or The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”). The Committee members will be appointed by the Board and may be removed by the Board in its discretion. The directors of the Board will annually appoint one member of the Committee as chairperson to serve a one year term at the first meeting of the Board following the annual stockholder meeting. The chairperson shall be responsible for leadership of the Committee, including overseeing the agenda, presiding over the meetings and reporting to the Board. The Committee shall have the authority to delegate any of its responsibilities to subcommittees as the Committee may deem appropriate, provided the subcommittees are composed entirely of independent directors, as and when required by the NYSE or Nasdaq.

3. Meetings

The Committee will meet from time to time as necessary to carry out its responsibilities, which the Board believes will generally be at least once per year. The Committee shall meet at the call of its chairperson and shall be governed by the same rules regarding notice of meetings and waiver of notice as set forth in the Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws. The Committee may meet by telephone conference call or by any other means permitted by law or the Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws. Subject to any requirements of the Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws, the Committee may act by unanimous written consent of all members in lieu of a meeting. The Committee shall determine its own rules and procedures, including designation of a chairperson pro tempore in the absence of the chairperson, and designation of a secretary. The secretary need not be a member of the Committee and shall attend Committee meetings and prepare minutes. The Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings, which shall be recorded or filed with the books and records of the Company. Any member of the Board shall be provided with copies of such Committee minutes if requested.

4. Committee Resources

The Committee shall have the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to obtain advice and seek assistance from internal and external legal, accounting, director search and other advisors. The Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any such advisors, including sole authority to approve such advisor's fees and other retention terms. The Committee shall receive appropriate funding from the Company, as determined by the Committee in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for the payment of compensation to such advisors.
